THE PROJECT

Little, Brown Company, United States, 1998. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 173 x 108 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The time is the turn of the century. Catapulted into office by abrupt tragedy, Dewey Goldberg is the first Jewish president of the United States. Though a thoroughly Americanized politico from a blue-collar district in Michigan, Goldberg knows he ll need a solid vote from his coreligionists in the bruising, upcoming reelection. Yet his greatest obstacle comes from a wholly unexpected quarter: Elihu Barzel, the prime minister of Israel. A miraculous survivor of World War II Poland in his youth, Barzel created an ever-growing legend for himself in Israel s birth and years of struggling growth. Inscrutable to even his closest friends, he is both the most well-known and the most mysterious man in the country, inspiring either devout loyalty or undying hatred. Charlie Walker is a prizewinning investigative journalist and Dewey Goldberg s confidant. Dispatched to Israel by presidential request, he gradually picks up the trail of an operation known only as The Project, a grand, treacherously shrouded stratagem, whose architect is Elihu Barzel, whose target is the earth s precarious balance of power, and whose explosive trigger only Walker can defuse. For in lifting the veil off The Project s hidden face, Walker will uncover a devastating secret about Barzel himself, one jealously guarded for decades by the aging warrior, and threaten to wrench not only Barzel s destiny from its likely course, but the destiny of Walker, Walker s friend and president, and the world they all inhabit. Packed with insight into the innerworkings of foreign policy, as...
