Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Golden Gate to Hell Gate Doubtless many dear old conservative souls think that, although we came through the desert and the foot-hills without being bitten up by grizzlies, proselyted by Mormons, or scalped by Apaches. Hammond and I are a harumscarum lot - the sort that makes balloon ascensions at country fairs, or runs away to sea to the deep mortification of our respected families. To these stiff-necked censors we protest we are serious-minded young men. We set out to cross the American Continent in a Runabout for many reasons - love of adventure being not the least potent. Being inherently modest, we assert that the same spirit guided a Columbus to America - a Magellan to the South Seas - a Stanley through the African jungles, and the numberless explorers who are still getting themselves lost in the Polar Seas. We didn't feel that we had a message for mankind - although we did have a message for Mayor Low of New York, from Mayor Schmitz of San Francisco. It is axiomatic that one can best see the country on an overland expedition by that means of locomotion which can be controlled by one's self. Of such means the automobile is far and away the most practical - for a trip across the Rockies, the only possible one.
