He shares his findings with his uncle, a police detective, already investigating a series of missing children in the Miami-Dade area. The story is an emotional roller coaster of adventures, containing elements of kidnapping, deception, and passion. Crossing international borders, the story reveals police investigative techniques and delves into illegal underground medical practices. Garry is a practicing dermatologist in South Florida. Sheila is a retired accountant. They have published four previous books and appeared on multiple talk shows. Through civilian academy programs of the FBI and DEA, they have had unusual law enforcement training. Deadly Countdown is the second jointly-authored title in their series of Cliff Mandich novels.
