Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Universals of Language The Conference on Language Universals was held at Gould House, Dobbs Ferry, New York, April 13-15, 1961, under the sponsorship of the Linguistics and Psychology Committee of the Social Science Research Council with a grant from the National Science Foundation. Although the topic of universals in language was one of the first to receive interdisciplinary interest from linguists and psychologists in the course of collaboration under the aegis of the S.S.R.C. Committee, the immediate stimulus for the Conference came during the academic year 1958-1959 from Joseph B. Casagrande, at that time a staff member of the Council. He suggested that the three members of the Committee who were resident Fellows that year at the Ford Center for Advanced Studies at Stanford, California - Joseph H. Greenberg, James J. Jenkins, and Charles E. Osgood - prepare a Memorandum on the subject of universals in language which might serve as a basis for theoretical investigation in this area, and for the planning of a Conference. This document, Memorandum Concerning Language Universals, was subsequently distributed...
