Extrait: .to join Gobryas. Cyrus marched on horseback, as did also the Persian horsemen, who were about two thousand. They who held the shields and the swords of these men followed after them, being equal to them in number; and the rest of the army marched in order of battle. He ordered every one to tell tiieir new servants that whoever of them should be seen either behind the rear-guard or before the front, or should be caught on the outside of those that were in their ranks on either wing, should be punished. On the second day towards the evening they reached the habitation of Gobryas. They saw it to be an exceeding strong fortress, and that all things were provided on the walls proper for a vigorous defence; and they saw abundance of oxen and sheep brought under the...
