

Someday My Barack Will Come: Encouragement for the Want-To-Be-Married Woman of Faith

By Karen Lightbourne

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Even with all I had, I didn't have what I really wanted: a husband. My life had some highs, but it also had a big heart knot - I had not yet tied the knot. I was single and saved, but I was definitely not satisfied with my current state. Even though I had the man upstairs, I didn't have my man in the pew next to me. I deeply desired both. Growing up as an African American child, I learned powerful lessons by different mediums. My family urged me to get an education and be independent. My family of faith often said, Wait on the Lord and Jesus is all you need. Society also taught me that all the good men were married or in jail. The combination of all three left me in trouble, or so I thought. Until Barack rode in. When I was covering the 2008 presidential election, I spoke with many African American leaders about the candidacy of Barack Obama. Certain words kept coming up in conversation. Those words...
