The door on the left is marked private and leads to a law office i?i connection with the suite of rooms. Fireplace a?id large easy chairs. Library table and reading lamp on it, right centre. Large easy chair by table, French windows at back. (Curtain rises on above scene with Joe Thomas seated in the chair by the table. He is leaning forward, hands clasped between his knees and with an expression of deep abstraction on his face.) Mel Treman (entering from the right, struggling with a tie which will not slide under his collar; his struggles carry him to the fireplace above which is a long mirror; standing in front of it for a moment and then). Of all the contemptible, low-down contraptions, you take the biscuit! (With a final tug,) There, hang you! (While tying his tie he catches sight of Joe in the mirror. He leans forward and looks into it and...
