Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Questions on the Sunday Evening Lessons: In the Church Service; Containing Questions on the First Lessons of the Evening Service, From Whitsunday to Advent This little work is written, to remedy a want often experienced by the Author, and expressed to him by others, of a series of questions on the Evening Lessons in our Church Service. While questions by different authors upon the Collects, Epistles, and Gospels, with Jackson's upon the Morning Lessons, furnish all that is needed upon those parts of the service, the Evening Lessons, which certainly may be studied with equal profit and instruction, seem for some reason to have been passed by. The First Series includes the First Evening Lessons, with Introductory Questions, designed to secure a knowledge of the principal subjects presented by the Church throughout the Christian year, and of its seasons and of their meaning. In preparing them, various authors have been consulted and freely used, and many of the questions relating to the Christian seasons are copied from Jackson and Burgess.
