Then up got the old lady, quite rosy and young, excited and gay, and said in a clear strong voice, --I give you in return the best of grandchildren, little Kate. I give you my word the cheer they gave grandma was nothing to the shout that followed these words; for the old lady led off with amazing vigour, and the boys roared so tremendously that the sedate tabby in the kitchen flew off her cushion, nearly frightened into a fit. After that, the elders sat with grandma in the parlour, while the younger part of the flock trooped after Kate all over the house. Fires burned everywhere, and the long-unused toys of their fathers were brought out for their amusement. The big nursery was full of games, and here Nursey collected the little ones when the larger boys and girls were invited by Kate to go out and coast. Sleds had been provided, and until dusk they kept it up, the city girls getting as gay and rosy as Kate herself in this healthy sport, while the lads frolicked to their hearts content, building snow forts, pelting one another, and carousing generally without any policeman to interfere or any stupid old ladies to get upset, as at home in the park. A cosy tea and a dance in the long hall followed, and they were just thinking what they would do next, when Kates second surprise came. There were two...
