New Generation Publishing, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Why does the Third World Hate us so much? The American citizen asked himself As he ran along the street. In the aftermath of 9/11 and the destruction of the World Trade Center in New York, America learnt a lot about itself. Just who was to blame for this apocalyptic disaster is the subject of the first of these two extended poems by a Sri Lankan Tamil, someone who instinctively aligns himself with the Third World in the quotation above. His second poem, The Song of a Liberated Zone , is focused on north-east Sri Lanka (Ceylon), home to the oppressed Tamil people. The Tamils could be likened to the Catholics in Northern Ireland during the Troubles . The islands off the northern Sri Lankan coast (ants, crawling on the tip of a mango) were overrun by the national army, and a long-running anti-terrorist war against the Tamil Tigers came to an uneasy end. but only after exodus, transportation, rape, burning and torture. As K Sivathamby aptly says in his foreword to these provocative poems, Poetry is not merely a matter of saying sweet things about sweet matters. More truly, it is genuine language of a thoughtful mind and an aspiring heart, longing for a better world. Filled with amazement at man s treatment of his fellows, yet filled with hope for humanity as well, M Ponnambalam s vision employs an exile s sharpened eye to describe the problems of America s attitude to global politics, and the experience of terrorism and its aftermath in the Third World itself.
